

Affordable Online Bsn Program For Full Time Rns

One of the professional degrees on the rise today is the registered nurse. It is one of those degrees whose graduates get a job right after graduation. Registered nurses are paid well and enjoy many benefits as compared to the other professional fields. Another advantage for the registered nurses is to go further for BSN which stands for Bachelors in Science in Nursing. The BSN program is much deeper than RN and BSN holders are ranked superior than RN. Obviously, since the degree is higher in rank, they get paid more and enjoy a lot more benefits than RNs.

Welcoming the Online Education:

Recently a new development has been made in the field of nursing, education and technology: online education. Top universities from the United States of America are providing online education and degrees to their students all around the world and particularly the state residents. This is a great opportunity for RNs to switch to BSN while sitting at their homes and working full time RNs. The universities which offer Online RN to BSN Programs are:

Taking the First Position:

The top of the list university offering online RN to BSN program is the Chamberlain College of Nursing. Located in Jacksonville, Florida, is one of the top universities for this program. Students who have an associate degree in nursing can apply for online RN to BSN program and complete the program in one year. Chamberlain College of Nursing charges $27,730 tuition fee for their online program.

Holistic Learning at the Comfort of Home:

The Cabbarus College of Health Sciences, located in Concord, North Carolina allows students to learn about holistic learning and switch from RN to BSN while sitting at their homes. Cabbarus College of Health Sciences offers part time degree options and the degree can be completed within six months. The college is charging $11,330 for the RN to BSN program.

Best Education at Affordable Rate:

The number three on the list of top 25 universities offering online RN to BSN program is the Pennsylvania College of Health Sciences. It offers online and hybrid method of education and classes can be taken in any of their two campuses. The tuition fee for this program is $21,502.

BSN for Iowa Residents:

The Allen College at Waterloo, Iowa is offering online RN to BSN program for its residents. The program can be undertaken by any student if they stand eligible. The tuition fee for this program is $18,829. That's a pretty affordable one.