

How Taobao Trends Is A Trustworthy Agent To Use?

For taobao shopping made easy many taobao shopping agents are used particularly by people importing goods from China but living outside of China. Taobao trends are a taobao agent which is very useful to use and this article presents some great features this agent has to offer;

The Best features of the Website:

The agent communicates with the seller according to the buyers' interests and takes responsibility of arranging the desired products. The communication to the customer is via email and they are very quick to respond. The items are ordered according to the buyers' requirements and often will contain pictures of the product if desired directly from the taobao website.

The agent sends 2 invoices to the customers each time the payment is processed, one time for the price of the goods and the second time for international shipping rates.

The products are first checked by the taobao to meet the customer' satisfaction or against any defects or sizing issues and then again prepared according to the standards of international shipping, and the shipping id is sent to the buyer for tracking the order.

The fees charged to the customers:

Taobao trends charge about 10% of the price of the product you choose and also the domestic shipping fees which is within China so not a big issue. Sometimes you might find an increased charge over bank transfers but they explain it as 3% of the PayPal fees hence the rates are pretty reasonable compared to many agents online.

How good is the customer support?

Taobao does not have 24/7 support rather the quick responses can be availed from 10am to 8pm from Monday to Friday which is not a huge issue for people enjoying independent and fresh shopping experience. A page is also dedicated explaining the tips for using the website which normally eliminates any need to contact the agent for any issues. Nevertheless, the staff is very polite and very efficient in responding emails and can also give you tips in case you are confused among 2 buyers or products. Their online presentations include information about choosing the quality products and high reputation sellers can be identified with diamond rankings.

Nevertheless for people wishing to shop best quality products with great communication skills with the buyer and to access the type of products otherwise ambiguous to you when directly visiting Taobao website, taobao trends is a great agent.
