

Job Vacancies at Planet Fitness

The most trusted name in innovative health, fitness centers across the United States and other countries is outrageously expanding to more locations in the country with its franchises to provide its clients the maximum health fitness experience like no other. Planet Fittest, as one of the biggest and fastest rising franchisor and operator of fitness hubs in the country is in need of employees to sustain the irrefutable expansion it's currently undertaking.

Career Vacancies at Planet Fitness

Planet Fitness is looking for qualified professionals who are interested to join their team in helping people reach their goals in health fitness. They are in need of Member Service Representatives, Front Desk Staffs, and Sales Staffs to accommodate its members and assist in their way around the fitness clubs as well as assisting prospective members of the club.

They are also in need of Fitness Trainers and Certified Personal Trainers to work closely with the clients to assist them in their fitness programs, assess their fitness levels and maintain good relationships with the members.

Assistant managerial positions are also open to assist the company in its operations management requirements and in client retention efforts, employee motivation and boosting of sales.

How to Apply

The planet Fitness job application is very easy to accomplish. You can apply via online thru their website and access the page on career opportunities. You just have to carefully follow the instructions in applying to your desired position and in selecting the location where you want to work. If you prefer to apply personally, just have the application form on their employment page printed out and submit it to the nearest branch in your area.

Once your application has been considered by their hiring team, expect a communication from them either thru e-mail or phone call that you are being invited for an interview as the next step of the hiring process. It would be better if you will come prepared to the possible topics that will be brought up or will be asked of you during this stage. Try to have some information with you about the company and the nature of their business when you appear in the interview.

This career opportunity is not only for those who are considered fitness polished people. Even if you are not a fitness buff type of person, as long as you have a good grasp of healthy lifestyle, and carry with you the passion to help its members to achieve their fitness goals, you can be eligible to work at Planet Fitness.