Georgia Mountains Regional Commission invites public input for updates of the Joint Comprehensive Plan for Union County and the City of Blairsville

GAINESVILLE – The Georgia Mountains Regional Commission (GMRC) is assisting Union County and the City of Blairsville with the update of their Joint Comprehensive Plan, the State required document that helps shape and coordinate local work programs for the local governments.

The online survey remains accessible through December 31, 2021. Anyone wishing to participate should visit <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/C22N8VX> or find the link on the web site for each local government.

There will be two more public forums open to all residents, as listed below. Both of these events will run from 4-7 PM and are walk-in/walk-out style forums where people are free to come at any time, visit multiple stations to review materials, submit questions or comments, and then leave at their leisure.

- Monday, December 20, 2021 in room 101 of the Union County Recreation Center (129 Union County Recreation Rd)
- Tuesday, January 4, 2022 at the Pat Haralson Memorial Civic Center (165 Wellborn St.).

Any questions about the public involvement process can contact Adam Hazell at the GMRC as listed above.
